

CCG Calendar Fall 2011

Community Hours

Sunday, Sept. 25: Working for the Common Good in RI After Graduation

Hear from three Brown alumni who decided to stay in Rhode Island and work with organizations that make a difference for workers, youth and the environment: Nicole Poepping '08, the Legislative Liaison for the Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management, Elizabeth Ochs '07.5, Expanded Learning Opportunities Coordinator at Central Falls High School, and Chas Walker, '00, an Elected Organizer at the New England Health Care Employees Union, District 1199 SEIU in Providence.

1pm 1st Floor CareerLAB, 167 Angell Street

Tuesday, Oct. 11: Demystifying Non-Profits

What does non-profit work actually entail? Hear from Sarah Beaulieu, Vice President for Organizational Strategy and Development at Be the Change, Inc.

7pm, Memorial Room, Campus Center

Tuesday, Oct. 18: Working for the Common Good in RI After Graduation

Noel Reyes, '06, now in his fifth year as a history and English teacher in the Boston Public Schools, and Rachel Levenson, '10, Community Outreach Liaison for the Rhode Island Public Defender's Office.

7pm, 1st Floor CareerLAB, 167 Angell Street

Tuesday, Nov. 1: International Development Work

Want to hear about exciting prospects in the field of international development? Isaac Gross, '07, Regional Analyst for the Clinton Health Access Initiative West/Central Africa Team based in Cameroon, and Vijay Narayan, '08, HIV Care & Treatment Program Manager in Swaziland, share their unique experiences.

4pm, 1st Floor CareerLAB, 167 Angell Street

Tuesday, Nov. 15: Political Jobs in 2012

As the 2012 election draws closer, political job opportunities abound. Learn about some of these unique possibilities, and hear from Tiffany Isaacs, '05, Recruitment Coordinator for the Public Interest Network, and Emile Aries, Ocean State Action, who worked on the Obama campaign.

7pm, Memorial Room, Campus Center

Events

Wednesday, Sept. 21: Fall CCG Career Fair for Careers in Nonprofit, Education, and Government

The annual CCG Career Fair gives students the opportunity to meet with employers -- some of them Brown alumni -- and organizations that have jobs and internships for students from first-years to seniors who want to make a positive impact on the world through education, activism or public service.

12-4pm, Kasper Multipurpose Room, Campus Center

Friday, Sept. 30 – Oct. 3: A Better World by Design

Each year, A Better World by Design brings a global community of innovators to Providence, Rhode Island to reach across disciplines and unite under a common goal: reshaping our built environment. Better World is an immersive experience that deepens our understanding of the power of design, technology, and enterprise to engage our communities and sustain our environment.

<http://www.abetterworldbydesign.com>

Resources

Blog

Edited daily with job, internship, and fellowship leads; be informed about what's happening in CCG community here at Brown and beyond.

<http://tinyurl.com/brown-ccg>

Exploring Options

Check out the "Exploring Options" section of the CCG webpage for links to job listservs, programs, fellowships, and networking opportunities organized by various issue areas.

<http://tinyurl.com/exploring-options-ccg>

Social Networking

Find "Careers in the Common Good" and "Brown Alumni in Public Service" on Facebook and LinkedIn.

Walk-In Hours

Contact us at ccg@brown.edu to set up an individual meeting, or come to the Campus Center, Room 228 for our walk-in hours.

Questions? Feedback? Want to get involved? Email: ccg@brown.edu

CCG is brought to you by the Brown CareerLAB, Curricular Resource Center, & Swearer Center for Public Service.